The Educator Leadership

Are You Learning to Lead?

The Educator Leadership Academy dives deep into what it means to be a leader. We explore the fundamentals of leadership and how they can be applied in practice. This fresh approach will allow you to enjoy the rewards of great leadership.

This program covers five main areas:

Leadership – Leadership Orientations in Children's Services

Motivation – Motivating ECEC Teams

Feedback – How To Give Amazing Feedback, Every Time

Delegation – Giving Instructions and Getting Things Done

Assertiveness – Speaking Without Shaking – The Art Of Assertive Communication

This two-month program combines live webinars, journal articles, case studies, and practical activities to give you the foundation to be a respected and admired leader who feels confident, effective and trusted in their approach to leadership.

The Educator Leadership Academy is designed for experienced leaders looking to refine their practice and Educators looking to step up into leadership roles.

Included in each module:

- Live webinar
- Supplementary articles
- Case studies and questionnaires
- Activities to do with your team
- Additional videos and resources.

Coaching

This program also includes three 30-minute, one-on-one phone coaching sessions. These sessions will help you successfully implement new skills into your practice in a tailored way that suits you. You can use the coaching session to explore topics discussed in the webinars or to help you manage specific real-life situations from your service.

Combined, the webinars and coaching sessions create the perfect combination of skills, confidence and tailored advice.
