An Educator Accountability
Workshop for Teams

Are you dealing with negativity in the service that is impacting the team and their performance?

We can help! This workshop will boost morale, spark your team's positivity and accelerate personal accountability.

Take your team to the next level.

This brand new 2-hour workshop has been specifically created to reignite the passion in Early Childhood and OSHC teams.

Help them say goodbye to blame and hello to a brand new wave of positivity and energy in the team.

Workshop Topics

Participants will:

1. Complete a self-assessment to inspire them to think differently about personal accountability.
2. Explore the 10 hidden elements that can build trust and spark positivity
3. Uncover how poor attitudes can derail the team, and how to get back on track
4. Overcome accountability road blocks and commit to supporting the team

Endless Possibilities

After the session participants will:

- Quickly acknowledge their mistakes and focus on correcting the situation.
- Learn from their experiences rather than allocating blame.
- Keep their word and honour their promises.
- Push through challenges and find a way to get the job done.

You'll be able to relax as your team take on more responsibility and transforms with a bright new optimistic attitude.

Goodbye Blame

Hello Accountability

"It's remarkable. I can see the team
rediscovering their passion and their purpose."
